Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be a continuous narrative or record. The script is dense and characteristic of early modern European handwriting. There are several large, dark ink blotches or corrections visible, particularly in the middle section of the page. The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear along the edges.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, covering the entire page. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including two circular holes and a large, irregular tear at the bottom right corner.
